the seats could be put in for $2,000 additional, and said this amount would be asked later on.

Mr. Peters (Mr. Spence in the chair) said that a great injustice was about to be done Mr. W. A. Chesterman, whose bid, including seats, was $40 less than that of Mr. Bedford.

"I tell you, gentlemen," he said warmly, "that the time has come when we should stand by the people who make the lowest bids. Nearly all the public buildings that are erected by our city cost us more than they should."

Substitute Adopted.
Captain Mills spoke vigorously against endorsing the contract, and said it was all a move for a permanent auditorium on Cary Street, to which he was unalterably opposed.
